Formal Petition to Charter an AKE Chapter

CONSTITUTIONAL ELIGIBILITY CRITERIA FOR NEW CHAPTER CHARTERING

To start a chapter of the International Business Honor Society (AKE), your institution must meet certain eligibility criteria:

1. Grant at least a baccalaureate degree in business in its own name;
2. Be accredited by an appropriate regional or national accrediting agency;
3. Offer at least one upper-level course in international business disciplines; and
4. Have at least one (1) of its international business faculty with appropriate terminal degrees.

If your institution satisfies these minimal eligibility requirements, then a full-time international business faculty member may complete the following petition and apply for a chapter charter.

PETITION TO CHARTER AN AKE CHAPTER
(This petition must be typed/machine-produced or clearly hand-printed)

1. Institution name ________________________________________________________
   Mailing address __________________________________________________________
   Phone_____________ Fax___________________ E-mail____________________

2. This institution/opportunity/school is (check one):
   ___ Four year, private, without graduate programs
   ___ Four year, private, with graduate programs
   ___ Four year, public, without graduate programs
   ___ Four year, public, with graduate programs
   ___ Other: _____________________________
   _______________________________
3. School/College/Unit where international business courses are housed:

______________________________________________________________________________

School/College/Unit phone: (___)___________ FAX: (___)___________
E-mail address: _________________________________________________________________

4. Is there a separate international business department? _____Yes _____No
If yes, department phone: (____)___________ FAX: (___)___________
E-mail address: _________________________________________________________________

5. Number of students majoring in international business _________________

6. Name of the petitioner (must be a faculty member) ____________________________
Position/Title _________________________________________________________________
Address: _________________________________________________________________

Petitioner’s phone: (___)__________________ FAX: (___)__________________
E-mail address _________________________________________________________________

______________________________________________________________________________

Petitioner’s signature ___________________________ Date ___________________________

7. This application must be endorsed by the Administrative Head (Dean or Division Head) of the academic unit (School, College) in which the International Business Program is located. A signature in this section certifies that the International Business Program is regarded as strategically important to this institution.

______________________________________________________________________________

Administrative Head Name ___________________________ E-mail ___________________

______________________________________________________________________________

Administrative Head Signature ___________________________ Date ___________________

8. Download and complete this petition and mail it, along with a check for US $50 made payable to: International Business Honor Society – AKE” and mail to:

Dr. Joseph A. Petrick
President, International Business Honor Society
Department of Management and International Business
Raj Soin College of Business
206 Rike Hall
Wright State University
Dayton, OH 45435-0001